We remember in prayer this week all those who tragically lost their lives in the violent attack in Nice, France on Thursday night. We pray for their families and ask God to stretch His Healing Hand on all who are injured.

"Gentle Jesus keep us all safely in Your Love."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration continues every Friday afternoon between 3 and 7 pm. Rosary and Benediction at 6.30 followed by Mass at 7pm.
 We are living at a time when we are encouraged just to be, to relax the mind and to be present to ourselves and others. Eucharistic Adoration is all about that and more – to be present to Christ who tells us that He is "Gentle and Humble of Heart". He invites us to come to him
"All ye who labour and are overburdened and you will find rest for your souls." To emphasise the importance of this we have included in the newsletter this week a very special prayer.

We would encourage more people to spend that special hour with Him on Friday afternoons .

"Come to me"

Come over to me, all you who are restless,
 and I will teach you how to be quiet, How to leave yourself alone.

Come over to me, all you who are anxious,
 even if I don't take your anxiety away,
 I will change it into fresh currency,
 as you turn your cares
 into greater belief in my caring.

Come over to me, all you who are lonely, I was lonely too,
 and could find no place to lay my head.

Come over to me, all you who worry
 what others really think about you. It doesn't matter.

They misunderstood me, no matter what I did.

Come over to me, all you who are always talking and explaining yourselves to others.

I know you inside out. I know the worst.

So you can come to me without any explanations.

Come over to me, all you whose great plans for yourself have failed.
 You don't know how lucky you are. And others too.

Come over to me, all you who can't stand yourselves.

I touched lepers, and once I called a man out of a tomb
 who had been stinking there for four days.

So come over to me I can stand just about anything.

Come over to me, all you who fret about the past.

I was there, I was part of your past, and I have forgotten all about it.
 So be like me and forget it too.

Come over to me, all you who can't live peacefully in the present.
 Come to me now, without reserve.

That is the way to live peacefully in the present.

Come over to me, all you who fear the future.

Do not fear. I am your future.

Our Parish Scouts Group set off on Friday morning to Achill Island camping for a week. We wish them well, hope they have a great time. We take this opportunity to acknowledge the great work that is done by Scouts. The aim of Scouting is to develop young people, socially, physically, intellectually, character, emotionally and spiritually. This programme is provided by a dedicated number of adult leaders who provide the support to our young people.

This week we learned that two scouts, a boy from Wexford and a girl from Dublin saved the life of a young boy who was drowning in Turkey. Local police have said the two Irish scouts are heroes and without their quick intervention the boy would have drowned.

Well done Sean of 6th Wexford Sea Scouts and Mollie of Rush 38th Scouts in Dublin.
