In November We Remember

This is not an easy time of the year. Late Autumn and winter is a time of falling leaves and long dark nights. Nature goes to sleep. And, of course it's a time to remember. We will go to the Graves - Standing there together but each one of us have our own memories. We bless the soil that enwraps 'the remains'. But the soul is elsewhere - in a better place', we say.

We gather for our bereavement Mass - again to remember in a special way our loved ones.

All of us face the mystery of death. Occasionally I wonder what will my own death be like. What happens to us after death? Almost every day we are confronted with someone else's sickness and dying. All of this is part of living. Some families have a lot of 'Novembers'.

It is for sure a time of Christian belief that the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ gives us hope. After each winter there is a spring. Nature sleeps so that it can bud forth again in a new spring.

We, here in Sixmilebridge and Kilmurry feel it is very important to remember and for bereaved families to know that we as a parish family remember theirs and our own loved ones. May they Rest in Peace.

For Loved Ones

Lord be good to them, and show them all your love.
Lord, be kind to them, and grant them peace above.
Lord, be merciful to them, and wipe their sins away.
Lord, be generous to them, with all my heart I pray.
Lord, be gracious to them for goodness they have done.
Lord, be gentle with them, for sufferings undergone.
Lord, may we meet again, when Heaven's crown is won.

Joe O'Keeffe's Talk on Wednesday Night

Joe O'Keeffe gave us, the Confirmation Parents, Young people and others - a most inspiring talk on Wednesday night. He basically posed the question "How do we deal with life's problems", at a difficult time, in a calm, relaxed way. Overall, he suggested the answers are spiritual, they come from within ourselves. Anything that damages me, spiritually, avoid. For example, Lying, Cheating, Stealing Arrogance, Anger, Greed, Resentfulness.

He helped us how to deal with these.

He then gave us very positive messages, like, living in the present, all we have is the moment. Adopt an attitude of gratitude - be grateful for good food, we could have been born in Haiti., etc. It's not easy recapture in a few sentences what Joe brought to the night. Finally, he told us pray every day - Jesus was and is a Healer, we ask God in Prayer and we thank Him.

Blessing of Graves

The annual Blessing of Graves will take place in Parish Graveyards next Sat. Nov. 6th as follows:-
