We celebrate the Birthday of The Blessed Virgin Mary on 8th September.

Mary, our Mother teach us how to open our hearts, without reserve to the Holy Spirit as you did, to seek and find God's will in all the crises and choices of our lives. Gain for us too, the grace to do His will with courage and untroubled hearts so that we may radiate a joy and gladness like yours in the service of our Lord.

ALL-IRELANDS SENIOR + UNDER 21

I am fully aware that not everyone in our community or Clare is interested in hurling. However, few people can deny that this is a very special week-end and week for Clare people. Its All-Ireland Hurling weekend. Clare and Cork teams are involved. On next Saturday Clare Under 21's play Antrim. The G.A.A. itself, founded in 1884 is probably the most significant voluntary community based movement in Ireland. It is a movement which gives people an identity, a pride of place, a sense of belonging. It is fundamentally a local parish community movement with the Club and Ecclesiastical Parish boundaries co-inciding.

The County team grows out of the Club. The Club feeds into the County team. They are inter-linked. This weekend Clare people, from Loop Head to Killaloe and all over the world, will focus on Croke Park to will on the 'Banner' in their efforts to bring back the Liam McCarthy Cup to Clare. We, in Sixmilebridge, are proud that this team is managed by a Bridgeman - Davy Fitzgerald. His father, Pat, as Secretary of the Clare County Board plays an enormous part in fostering and developing our games in the County. Dr. Padraic Quinn looks after the medical needs of these and many other teams in the County. A number of young men from the Parish are part of the Senior and Under 21 teams involved in both All-Irelands this Sunday and next Saturday evening. We wish them well. Already they have given the people of the County a great lift. The players are young. They have given all young people an example of commitment and dedication.

A note from Sixmilebridge G.A.A. Club ... wishing Davy, Séadna, Derek, Jamie, Dr. Quinn, Pat Fitz and all involved with the Clare team the best of luck in the All Ireland Final on Sunday.

Pope Francis asks us to Pray this weekend for Peace in Syria

God of Mercy,

Look upon our brothers and sisters in Syria with compassion,
 Hear their cries and answer them,
 Protect them in their hour of need,
 Comfort them in their mourning,
 Journey with them as they flee the harsh reality of war, to a place of comfort and lasting peace.
 Inspire all leaders to seek love over hatred, and create in them the courage to ease the suffering of a people.
 May we as followers of Christ, be an example of your loving mercy here on earth,
 For it is in giving to all that we receive.
 We ask this prayer through Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace, Amen.
