May Eve Area Gathering

Thursday April 30th 7.30 p.m.

Venue: Reilly's Land, Ballymulcashel, Kilmurry

Theme: Connecting to our Celtic Past.

May 1st is one of four great Feasts around which the Celtic Year revolved. It's the beginning of Summer. It's the time when cattle return to grass.

Animals and land will be Blest -

A special Mass will be celebrated – one with deep connections and prayers - to the reality of life all around us.

Our local traditions will be recalled. We will have music, song, story, and of course the tea and the chat.

The evening will be an occasion to connect us to nature. The view from the venue is magnificent – looking over to East Clare, Broadford, Cratloe Hills, Airport.

It's only when we gather in a place like this we appreciate the beauty of our Environment.

It is also an occasion to connect us to one another and the different areas of our community.

Everyone is invited. It will be a special experience.

Masses this week: Tuesday - Thursday 10 a.m. Friday 7 p.m.
