God's Loving Care

Father; we thank you for your promise that nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled and worried when we are ill, even if we suffer; because we are certain that neither death nor life, nothing that is past, nothing here and now, nothing that is to come, can come between us and your love, Father, in Christ Jesus, Our Lord. Amen.

Are We All On A Search?

The people of Ireland are on a journey through many crossroads, some of them with signposts pointing the wrong way.

Some people are doing fine. They are on the right road. Others have taken wrong turns, listened to blind guides and ended up lost. How can people know the right way? And where can we find nourishment to help us on our way?

Who leads and who follows ?

Without over stating a fact most people are aware of - Who leads some young people in the habit of finding their so called nourishment in drugs or in binge drinking? Why is it people get involved when they know that so many lives and homes are destroyed? Have we any answers to a reality that has taken a firm grip of far too many people with horrendous results?

Sooner or later we as a people in Ireland will have to address what has become a plague.

Young people themselves - those who do not go on this journey will have to take a stand under the Banner.

Young People Against Drugs

Homes from a very early stage will have to take a stand and be helped to do that.

For example, it is a fact that children need to grow up realising that discipline is a vital part of their growing up.

Youth and sporting organisations will have to take a stand and emphasise the importance of healthy living for achievements in life.

Christian communities will have to develop a genuine, practical way of acquiring peace of mind and Mind, Body Spirit growth.

There is no easy answer. But one thing is certain we cannot continue to stand by much longer in Ireland talking about the terrible damage being done to too many of our people. Above all let each one of us pause and wonder what can be done as individuals, families, communities.

And God must have some questions for us:

“Will you follow me or not?”

“Do you believe in the One I have sent?”

“Did you hear properly when you were taught the truth?”

“Why are you looking for me?”

“Have you seen the signs?”

The Mens Sheds together with the I.C.A. are organising Mass at The Courthouse, Sixmilebridge on Thursday August 20th. All are welcome.
