Fr. Harry got a letter from Santa during the week ....

Santa Claus Lane,
North Pole,
Alaska 99705

Hello Fr. Harry,
Santa here!

I hope you are keeping safe and well.

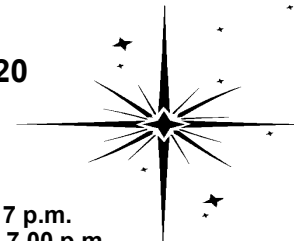

We are very busy here at the North Pole getting everything ready for Christmas.

Now things are a little different in the world this year. A lot of you have been wondering is it going to be safe for me to travel. Will you please tell the boys and girls that myself, Mrs. Claus, and all of the elves have been staying at home, washing our hands and are being extra careful so that we can call to all your houses safely. But with all the travel restrictions in place we will not be able to stop off at your Church on Christmas Eve. We will keep going so that we can call to all your houses with the gifts.

Will you ask all the boys and girls to wish Baby Jesus a Happy Birthday and say a prayer to Him every day. Thank Him for keeping us safe and say a little prayer too for all those who are helping to mind us at home and in our hospitals.

I know you have all been very good this year. Don't forget to leave a carrot out for Rudolph. He gets very hungry. Keep washing your hands and go to bed early.
Love
Santa
