We pray for the repose of the soul of Michael Keane, Moygalla and Ardcroney who died during the week. We extend our sympathy to all his family and friends. We also extend our sympathy this week to Gemma Brolly, on the death of her mother Rose in Limerick. We remember all our loved ones and especially those whose anniversaries occur at this time. Rest in Peace .

Friends + Neighbours Area Gathering

The gathering in Ballycullen at 8 pm next Thursday evening will be our 17th. Again the emphasis is on connecting. The local people have been preparing for some weeks. Every house will be visited in the area. Invitations will be issued.

A range of people are involved. Because it's the May Eve celebration there will be a big emphasis on the animals + birds. Horses, ponies, donkeys, sheep, goats, hens, dogs will be brought. They will be Blest. The grass, trees, river will be Blest too. Connecting to animals and nature; connecting too to one another and we connect to the Creator. Music, song, story, the tea and the chat will all be part of it.

All are invited for another step in our journey on the road to Celtic Spirituality.

Congratulations!

Winning the Under 21 Hurling Championship on Thursday evening was an important achievement for the Club, the mentors, the young lads themselves, their families and for the whole community. We congratulate these young men. This community is fortunate to have such a fine generation of young people. You are the leaders of the future.

The Sharing

We told our stories - that's all.
 We sat and listened to each other and heard the journeys of each soul.
 We sat in silence, entering each one's pain
 and sharing each one's joy.
 We heard love's longing
 and the lonely reachings-out
 For love and affirmation.

We heard of dreams - shattered and visions fled.
 Of hopes and laughter turned stale and dark.
 We felt the pain of isolation
 And the bitterness of death.

But in each brave and lonely story
 God's gentle life broke through and we heard music in the darkness
 and smelled flowers - in the void.
 We felt the budding of creation
 In the searching of each soul
 And discerned the beauty of God's hand
 In each muddy, twisted path.
 And God's voice sang in each story.

God's life sprang from each death.
 Our sharing became one story of a simple lonely search
 For life and hope and oneness
 In a world which sobs for love.
 And we knew that in our sharing
 God's voice with mighty breath was saying
 Love each other and take each other's hand.
 For you are one though many
 and in each of you I live.

So listen to my story and share my pain and death.
 Oh, listen to my story and raise and live with me.
