God's Love has no boundaries
 It's flowing everywhere.
 He has enough for everyone
 And even some to spare
 So take a heaping handful
 And give some out each day..
 Speak it by your actions
 And with the words you say.
 As you share His Love with others
 He will make it multiply
 For God's Love has no boundaries
 There's an infinite supply. .

Happy Valentine's Weekend!

READERS AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

All Readers and Eucharistic Ministers - existing and new - both Churches - are invited to an Evening of Reflection and Nourishment of their Faith on Wednesday Evening next, February 17th at 7.30 p.m. in the Church in Sixmilebridge. Others interested are, of course, welcome.

Lent is a special time for us all to take stock of where life is taking us. It's a time to rediscover how close we are to God. And its about how God can transform my life if only I can let go the focus on my own concerns. By allowing God into our lives we discover that our lives are transformed. In the past week we are reminded again how godlessness can lead to horrendous crimes and a total disregard for life. Anyone who has turned his/her back on God might consider the fact that there is a greater power than us, a higher power - one we name as God. It is vital we nourish our Faith in Him. We do that when we listen to His Word and when we receive Him in the Eucharist. If you know of anyone who has given up going to Mass, where HE speaks to us and offers Himself to us, we might invite that person to avail of Lent to come back to Him.

New Readers and Eucharistic Ministers.

All invited to attend a training night in the Church, Sixmilebridge at 7.30 p.m. Wednesday February 24th. They are, of course, asked to attend the session on 17th also.
