Spring - New Life - New Hope

The Celtic Year revolved around from great feasts: 1st February with nature coming alive again after three months of Winter. Leaves, flowers, grass begin their growth. Animals - lambs are born, cows, cattle return gradually to grass, birds full of life, fishermen to the sea.

The days lengthen. New life in people.

These days we remember, as always people who for one reason or another would give anything for that new life - people we pray for every day.

We remember too the people who run shops and businesses. They are part of the life-blood of our community. All our existing businesses deserve that support. And we wish Pat and Marie Cooney well when they open their new ...

"Mrs. Breens's Bakery OPENING Wednesday 22nd February at 10.00 a.m."

The other three feasts of the Celtic Year are:

May 1st	Beginning of Summer
August 1st	Harvest Time begins
November 1st	Feast of the Disappearing Sun.

All four emphasise the connection between Diving Life, The Worlds of Nature and Summer Life.
