Our Parish Graveyards

The Parish has recently engaged with a company called Irish Graveyards to display information in all our graveyards and also to put it on line. This information is already available to see by visiting Irish Graveyards.ie and follow the link. This means people anywhere in the World may see the graves of their loved ones. Ballysheen Old and New, Feenagh, Kilmurry, and by the kind permission of Cratloe Parish, we have Cilín on view also. Copies of the layout are displayed in Sixmilebridge Church for two weeks beginning this weekend and will be in Kilmurry Church the following two Sundays. We invite people to check these to make sure the information is correct. If any changes need to be made please contact the Parish Office. Once finalised these then will be displayed in all the Graveyards and will be updated every three years.
