Nuggets of Wisdom

(Irish Times: Tuesday January 6th Feast of Wise Men)

- In arguments, forget who's right and remember what's right.
- It is hard to get down off a high horse gracefully. Some of us know this better than most.
- You can't make people who you want them to be. If you don't like the way they are, then you're probably with the wrong people.
- A wise man once said that whenever he falls out with someone, he asks himself would he go to their funeral if they died tomorrow. If the answer is yes, he thinks: What is so wrong that he can deal with them in death and not in life?
- Find out which way the crowd is moving, then run like hell in the other direction.
- Perfection is something we seek in everyone except ourselves.
- This is an old Irish Proverb: "If you lose an hour in the morning, you'll end up chasing it all day."

As we celebrate The Baptism of the Lord this weekend, we remember the 40 babies who were Baptised in our Parish during 2014.

Loving God we ask your Blessing on their families and make all our homes a place where we can grow in faith together.
