World Day of Migrants and Refugees

Today, the second Sunday of Ordinary time, the Catholic Church throughout the world celebrates the 100th Anniversary of the World Day for Migrants and Refugees.

On this World day for migrants and Refugees, we who are fortunate in so many ways, are challenged to reflect on those who are deprived of freedom, peace, security and other fundamental rights.

Lord, hear the cry of all those whose journeys have become ordeals undertaken for the sake of survival, may Your Kingdom of Peace and Justice come for all peoples of the earth.

Migrant Sunday

19th January 2014

"Dear migrants and refugees!

Never lose the hope that you too are facing a more secure future, that on your journey you will encounter an outstretched hand, and that you can experience fraternal solidarity and the warmth of friendship! To all of you, and to those who have devoted their lives and their efforts to helping you, I give the assurance of my prayers and I cordially impart my Apostolic Blessing."
