Volunteering

Volunteering enriches our society, brings us together as a community, and helps keep organisations afloat. Like every other community in Ireland volunteering is very special and vital to ensure that what has to be done is done but also as part of developing a community spirit. This is certainly true of the Church. At the start of the new year we are looking at all our volunteers. Initially within our local Church and in the next few weeks we hope to make contact with these to make sure there are sufficient volunteers to keep things moving. We all know that many hands make light work. "Volunteers do not necessarily have the time; they just have the heart."
