A Week in the Life of Our Parish

The week that was and the week to come. We had Kevin Hennessy's funeral. At 54 years of age he was too young to die, leaving a young family after him. Kevin was a gentle man. He brought up the family with a few very nice pieces of advice like: if you haven't anything good to say about anyone, say nothing. We all have a lot to learn from that. Not easy.

We have people from among us who are sick. We will continue to keep them in our prayers. That is a special part of being a Christian. Pray for and support one another.

We had the Area Gathering - in Inis Órga on Tuesday evening. It stayed fine for the Mass and for Paddy - the magician - to mesmerize us all but especially the children with his wizardry, - what a gift.

We had a fine crowd and again thanks to the locals who put a lot into the organisation.

There are six weddings in the two weeks - not all in the Parish - one in Ennis and one in West Clare. We wish them well in this new phase of life for them all.

And we had the baptisms.

All of these, in a few short days brings home to us the reality of what we call the cycle of life. The Births, Marriages, Deaths, - the Gatherings, the efforts to enrich life for each one of us in the building of Community and to support one another in our trials, our sickness, and worries.

The Gospel today reminds us of holiday time. The disciples had been very busy. When they came back to report He took them away to a quiet place to rest. But even then the crowds followed.

There is a clear message in that. We cannot do without one another and our God.

Finally, if you are on holiday hope you get a rest. Children and families, enjoy one another even more these days and weeks, in spite of the weather. There are signs too that the weather will improve and the rain will take a rest.

'Have a Good Week!'
