Fr. Harry's Phone Stolen

Fr. Harry's Mobile Phone was stolen from his car during Mass last Sunday week. As a result he has lost all his numbers. He would appreciate if any of his regular contacts would text him with number so that he can build up his contacts list again.
 We encourage everyone to be please be careful about leaving belongings on show while your car is parked outside our Churches. Please be aware and vigilant.

Easing Our Burdens

God never gave a burden to a back that couldn't carry it. That was a saying a lot of us were brought up with. The back was made for the load - that was another. And up to a point that is true. But tragically that is not always the case. Where do most people find comfort now or relief. Certainly in the wrong places for some. Different places for others - religion, spirituality, prayer, counselling, partners, a friend, a doctor, a priest.

Where do children find comfort and strength to carry their burdens? A child's first language is their utter and unequivocal trust in their mother or father. They bypass friends, even compassionate brothers and sisters to turn to their parents. A child who is over burdened and tired wants nothing more than to creep into their mother's lap and stay there. That's what today's Gospel reminds us, - where do we find comfort and consolation - in the lap of the God who is father and mother to us.

Recently I got a Novena of Surrender from a woman. It touched into things that weigh us down. Sometimes we might not be able to cope with these or find it very difficult. What we are hearing in the Gospel today is why do you confuse yourselves by worrying?

Jesus tells us - "Leave the call of your affairs to me and everything will be peaceful. I say to you in truth every act of true, blind, complete surrender to me produces the effect that you desire and resolves all difficult situations."

Pray ten times

"O Jesus, I surrender myself to you, take care of everything."

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Now that both our schools have closed, people will be taking to the hills, beaches and to the air.
 We wish everyone a safe, restful and Happy Holiday
