Parish Celebration Night

Bishop Fintan has issued the Diocesan Clerical Appointments for 2018. Some have major changes as there are now Parishes without a priest. The main focus is on Clusters. Our cluster is Tradaree Cluster which includes Sixmilebridge, Newmarket-on-Fergus and Shannon. This will mean that all three Parishes will co-operate with each other and this will be worked out in time.

Fr. Harry will remain in Sixmilebridge doing what he always does. All priests over a certain age are obliged to technically retire but that doesn't apply in this case.

To acknowledge this the Parish/Pastoral Council are holding a PARISH CELEBRATION NIGHT on Saturday 7th July, beginning with Mass at 7 p.m. After Mass there will be a short historical walk around the village with short stops along the way for information on the different places. The first stop is Church View, then the Library and The Mill and Frederick Square. Local historian Michael McNamara will deliver the information as we go. The Ballysheen Graveyard Committee are helping with this.

It won't take too long and then refreshments will be held in The Greyhound Bar.

We hope that as many as possible will join us for Mass at 7.00 p.m. and take a little stroll through our lovely village with us all together as a Parish Community celebrating all that is good in life.

A thought on the Gospel

The Gospel today encourages us to put loved ones into the care and love of God. God has hopes for every child born into the world. We hope that they will find God's love in their lives and the care of Jesus, as John the Baptist did. We hope they can take on the best values we try to pass on.

All of us, young and not so young, can 'prepare the Way of the Lord' by our lives - what we say and how we say it, what we do and how we do it.
