Thoughts for Lent ... "Simple Not Easy"

Lent beckons us to "rouse ourselves," to remind ourselves that, simply put, we are creatures, that we are not God.

Lord, it seems so obvious that I am not God, but you know very well how much time I spend in rendering judgment on others or imagining how I would run the Universe if I were in charge. And how little time I spend in accepting who I am and being grateful for all I have been given. Lord Jesus, may this Lent be a time of self-awareness, gratitude and service so that I can live out my Baptism as a true disciple. Amen.

Lent gives us an opportunity to review our lives.

We know there is always room for change and improvement. We might consider giving more time to ...

God in Prayer Personal... with the Community at Mass Eucharistic Adoration Rosary Benediction Stations of the Cross on Fridays.

Lent - What to give up ...

- Give up complaining - focus on gratitude
- Give up pessimism - become an optimist
- Give up harsh judgements - think kindly thoughts
- Give up worry - trust Divine Providence
- Give up discouragement - be full of hope
- Give up bitterness - turn to forgiveness
- Give up hatred - return good for evil
- Give up negativism - be positive
- Give up anger - be more patient
- Give up gloom - enjoy beauty that is all around you
- Give up jealousy - pray for trust
- Give up gossiping - control your tongue
- Give up sin - turn to virtue
- Give up giving up- hang in there
