"An G Team"

Sixmilebridge has beaten off tough competition to be shortlisted for "An G Team" a new series where non-Gaeltacht communities can compete against each other for the opportunity to call themselves The G Team winners 2011 and win a €40,000 Foras na Gaeilge prize to use in promoting their local area. Over the next few weeks TG4 will visit the village and film various businesses, community and social groups as they go about their daily routine, incorporating the cápla focail into their everyday conversations. This will cumulate on Fri. 1st July when Sixmilebridge will host G Day, an exciting and unique opportunity for the village to come together in celebration of its culture and heritage and showcase all that our village has to offer. If you are interested in getting involved or have any ideas for G Day please contact Ciara on 086-8563789.

Message from Diocesan Office

Bishop Kieran O'Reilly's office have become aware of a number of incidents in recent weeks, in which an individual fraudulently ordered goods by telephone, using a Diocesan staff member's name, and claiming to order on behalf of the Bishop or Diocese. The person has used a version of the Diocesan office stationery, and with Bishop O'Reilly's signature, both of which may appear to be authentic, to confirm the order. The Diocesan Office wishes to appeal to all traders across the County, but in the town of Ennis in particular, not to accept any such orders without returning calls to the office land - line for verification, and not, under any circumstances, to deliver goods to another premises for collection.

All queries to be directed to Diocesan Press officer
 Fr Brendan Quinlivan at 087 273 6310.
