Prayer for Exam Students

Loving God

Be with me now, as I prepare for my exams.

Thank you for the many talents and gifts you have given me and for the opportunity of education.

Calm my nerves and anxiety, help me to remember all that I have studied, to express it clearly and to answer the questions the very best that I can.

Holy Spirit, sit with me in my exam - and always.

Give us all the gifts of peace and calm during this time.

Help us all to do our best so that we can reap the rewards of our study.

Help us also to be true friends and a support to others.

We give you the gift of our work so that we can use our talents now and in future in your service.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

The New Roman Missal

The words we say and hear at Mass will soon be changing. There are not many changes to the People's Prayers. However, some said by the Priest will see significant changes.

In 2002, a new edition of the Missal in Latin was approved by the late Pope John Paul II. Last year 2010, a new English translation of the Latin Edition was completed and approved by Pope Benedict for use in English speaking Countries. The changes are the result of that new translation.

Over the coming months, we will be preparing to use the new translation. This weekend, an explanatory leaflet is available for you to read giving you a brief explanation of the changes and a little bit of history to set it in context.

From September next, our Sunday Missalettes will begin on a phased basis to introduce us to the changes. The new Missal will come into use in Ireland on the first Sunday of Advent 27th November.

Cycle Ireland in memory of John Lyons, Cappa Lodge begins this Sunday 29th May. John's sister Bernie is taking part in the cycle from Blarney and arriving in Sixmilebridge on Tuesday evening.

The 'Living Scenes' Transition Year students and adults of St. Joseph's Secondary School Tulla present "Give me Roses while I can smell them" which was written by Sarah Lennon who sadly passed away in March of this year. Venue is Tulla Courthouse - on June 2nd at 8pm. Admission free. A donation box for Milford Hospice will be at the door and your support would be appreciated.
