Census – Church goes

On Saturday evening May 20th and Sunday May 21st a census of mass goers in the parish will be taken at all Masses 7pm on Sat evening and 10 and 11 am on Sunday.
 We are delighted with attendances at Mass here in Six-milebridge and Kilmurry.
 However, in order to get a reasonably accurate figure of regular Mass goers we would encourage you to attend one or other of the Masses within the parish on that weekend. You might encourage people you know who regularly attend Mass of this.

Ballysheen Consecration

Where we bury our dead has a special place in our hearts and minds. It's a sacred place. It's a place to be revered in a way that calls to mind all the body meant to us during life. It's the vehicle that carries our souls and our spirit. We were told we were created in the image of God and that we will rise one day to be with him forever.

Next Thursday evening at 8pm we have a special ceremony to recall and remember all our loved ones. In a very special way it's an evening to consecrate and bless the ground which will be the burial place for our loved ones into the future. This is a gathering for all the community and for those outside the community whose loved ones are buried in Ballysheen. We would like you to let people from outside the parish know of this if they have connections with people buried in this graveyard.
 As a parish community we would like to acknowledge our deep gratitude to those people who volunteered their time regularly over the past 12 months, at least. Their volunteering reminds us all to give something of our time to others. It is in giving we receive.

Thanks a lot to each and every one of them.

A special thank you to Eddie Russell for donating the land. This was a remarkably generous gesture to the parish community. Of course we should not forget that the timber which went to make the altar and surrounds in our Church also came from the Russell land. Thanks! Eddie.
