MISSION

We all know people - lay and cleric - who went on a mission to foreign lands. There they worked with the poorest of the poor. They brought with them opportunities for these poor people.

- to be educated
- to be healthier
- to be more resourceful
- to give them back the dignity they are entitled to, as human beings.

They took account of their culture, their way of life and connected the Christian faith, and values with it.
 In all of this these 'missionaries' responded to the call 'Go and make disciples of all nations.' Today, we remember them in a special way in our prayers. And we remind ourselves that we are involved in a renewed form of Mission in Ireland today.

"May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you." St. Therese of Lisieux

A note from Apostolic Work Society, Sixmilebridge

The Apostolic Work Society would like to acknowledge Mission Sunday today. We are a group who make Vestments and Altar Linens etc., for the Missions.
 We meet regularly during the winter months, and recite prayers for the Missions.
 We also fundraise through a Church Gate Collection each year and hold a raffle on Display Day in March.
 New members are always welcome and any member of the Apostolic Work Society can be contacted.

The Final

It's County Final Day and we the Parish of Sixmilebridge & Kilmurry are involved. We wrote last week that County finals are special. They stay in the memory especially when they are won. It's a great occasion and one worthy of a community's sense of 'pride of place' and belonging.
 Again we acknowledge the contribution the GAA Club and all sporting, recreational and cultural organizations make to our community. They enhance the quality of life for so many people.
 We wish our team well in this final. Lets show our appreciation by turning out in big numbers to support them, with our flags, our voices and above all our presence.

The Eucharistic Congress Bell in Sixmilebridge

The Eucharistic Congress Bell will be arriving in Sixmilebridge on Tuesday morning 25th October for Mass at 11.30 a.m This is a very special opportunity for our community to come together drawn by the sound or the peal of the pilgrim Bell. The Bell is accompanied by four Icons, each of which symbolises one element of the Eucharist (Gathering - Listening to the Word - Nourishment for the journey - Mission) The Bell will be used during our Mass on Tuesday morning. We hope as many as possible will come and be part of this very special event.

First Aid & CPR for all ages at the Courthouse, Sixmilebridge on Tuesday 25th October from 8pm to 10 pm. Prices €30 and €45 per couple.
 Contact Martin Conlon at 087-6568339.
 New course of Pilates commences at Quin Hall Monday 24th of Oct Class times are 7 to 8pm and 8 to 9pm. Contact Deirdre 087-2093006
 Anyone interested in joining the Kilmurry Church Readers Group please contact Theresa O' Dea before Oct. 30th.
