On the Death of the Beloved

Though we need to weep your loss,
 You dwell in that safe place in our hearts,
 Where no storm or night or pain can reach you.

Your love was like the dawn
 Brightening over our lives,
 Awakening beneath the dark
 A further adventure of colour
 The sound of your voice found for us
 A new music that brightened everything.

Whatever you enfolded in your gaze
 Quickened in the joy of its being:
 You placed smiles like flowers
 On the altar of the heart.
 Your mind always sparkled
 With wonder at things.

Though your days here were brief,
 Your spirit was alive, awake, complete.
 We look towards each other no longer
 From the old distance of our names;
 Now you dwell inside the rhythm of breath,
 As close to us as we are to ourselves.

Though we cannot see you with outward eyes,
 We know our soul's gaze is upon your face,
 Smiling back at us from within everything
 To which we bring our best refinement.
 Let us not look for you only in memory,
 Where we would grow lonely without you.
 You would want us to find you in presence,
 Beside us when beauty brightens,
 When kindness glows
 And music echoes eternal tones.
 When orchids brighten the earth,
 Darkest winter has turned to spring;
 May this dark grief flower with hope
 In every heart that loves you.
 May you continue to inspire us:

To enter each day with a generous heart.
 To serve the call of courage and love
 Until we see your beautiful face again
 In that land where there is no more separation,
 Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,
 And where we will never lose you again.
