SENSITIVE TO OTHERS

There isn't a family which doesn't get it sometime. That is what we say when some sickness or other misfortune hits a family. That is true but some get more than their share of it. And others escape light enough. This is a time when we all need to be sensitive to others. We just don't know what is going on in people's lives.

This month of November reminds us in a special way of our loved ones. And no one escapes the reality of death. On Thursday night we had a big gathering for those who died - 29 in all - in the past year. It was a very soulful experience. We remembered people of all ages. Included in the 29 was a baby, people in the prime of life and those not so young. Each one left loved ones after them. We prayed for those who have gone but in a special way we prayed to the to inspire us:

"To enter each day with a generous heart.

To serve the call of courage and love

until we see your beautiful face again

In that land where there is no more separation,

Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,

And where we will never lose you again"

John O'Donoghue

Knitting Our Community Together. Thank you to all volunteers who knitted squares for the knitted poem. Due to the overwhelming response, we have additional squares and want to ensure that every square is used. If interested in volunteering from home, to join squares to form blankets (15" x 10", 24" x 24"), we will provide the squares and the wool. We are also looking for some individual volunteers to join our sewing team, for the last stage of the knitted poem project. Deadline for completion of blankets is Monday 3rd December.
