OUR DEPARTED LOVED ONES

Our Loved ones are not distant or absent. They are along side us. When we lose someone to death, we lose their physical image and presence, they slip out of visible form into invisible presence. This alteration of form is the reason we cannot see the dead. But because we cannot see them does not mean that they are not there.

Transfigured into eternal form, the dead cannot reverse the journey and even for one second re-enter their old form to linger with us a while.

Though they cannot reappear, they continue to be near us and part of the healing of grief is the refinement of our hearts where by we come to sense their loving nearness.

When we ourselves enter the eternal world and come to see our lives on earth in full view, we may be surprised at the immense assistance and support with which our departed loved ones have accompanied every moment of our lives. In their new, transfigured presence their compassion, understanding and love take on a divine depth, enabling them to become secret angels guiding and sheltering the unfolding of our destiny.

Prayer for November

Remember those who kept the faith
 Who always turned to pray,
 Who showed the love of Jesus
 In their lives from day to day.
 Remember those this special time
 Who live with God above,
 All saints, All Souls and all our own
 Who live with God in Love.

Congratulations! - Well Done Paddy

A great turnout to the launch of book Sixmilebridge "Images through Time" was held in G.A.A. Hall on Friday night. The book is a compilation of photographs taken down through the years by Pat Higgins. It is a beautiful book and will make a lovely Christmas present. All proceeds are going to Sixmilebridge National School. Well done! to all.

Diocesan Conversation Evening - Caint agus Comhrá

During these weeks a series of conversations are being held in different locations around the Diocese, hosted by Bishop Fintan. The conversation for our pastoral area will be in the Health and Wellness Centre in Carrigoran Nursing Home on this Wednesday night, November 7th at 7.30 pm.

The conversations are not about structures or decisions about the future. We have gathered a lot about that and it has been good. However, this evening is about listening to each other to see where we are at. How we feel as people of faith and communities or faith, at this time. They offer space to think and talk together. A warm invitation is extended to everyone to be part of the conversation.
