Lest We Forget

We have the month of November to remind us, in a special way, of those who mean a lot to us in life and have passed on. In remembering them our thoughts and prayers are very much with people who have been recently bereaved. November is no easy month for a lot of people. But for some who are trying to adjust to life without their loved one there are a lot of Novembers.

This month is all about remembering. Each one of us have our own memories. They are special because they are yours. Some of the memories may be a little faint now because it's such a long time. But they are still very precious. It is lovely to hear people recall the life and times of their father or mother, even years on. A mother/father who lost their child will never forget. A partner - husband - wife - the person you shared a big part of your life with, is clear in the memory. A brother / sister, part of your family on earth leaves other kinds of memories.

Saturday night, Nov. 12th we will have that special Mass for all those who died in the past year. This is always a gathering which includes many broken hearts.

That same day, we will visit all the graveyards in the Parish - Ballysheen, Kilmurry, Feenagh. We will pray for all our dead.

Right through the month we will pray in a special way for those WE CAN NEVER FORGET
