Handing On Christian Values

It is generally accepted that promotion of these are vital for our time - for the way we live and the way we behave - especially at home and in the community. The Meaning to Life Group, a sub-group of the Parish Council here in Sixmilebridge/Kilmurry, are actively involved in this. Parents are engaged in a special way. They have responded to a questionnaire about concerns they have rearing children at this time and values they believe should be promoted. The importance of engaging parents in this is stressed. This programme is on going. A special step in the involvement of the young people will take place on Saturday evening October 19th at 7 p.m. Mass. Young people will participate in the Readings, Prayers of the Faithful. Joanne O'Brien, Youth Director for the Diocese will preach the homily and young people will bring up the gifts and pray the Prayers of the Faithful. It is Mission weekend and two teenagers, Lily Mahon and Aoife Keenan from the Parish who are travelling to Calcutta, India, with the Hope Foundation and will be working with Street Children, helping to bring comfort and practical help to young people who are the poorest of the poor. They will talk to us about this and we will have an opportunity to make our own financial contribution to this worthy cause. We wish them well and in their work we might be helped to appreciate and thank God for all we have.

A PERFECT PEACE NEWMAN Saint for Our Time

John Henry Newman, will be canonised Saint on this Sunday in Rome. We congratulate our Bishop Fintan who will be attending the Canonisation and who wrote and launched his beautiful book titled
"A Perfect Peace Newman - Saint for Our Time"
 on Thursday night at St. Flannan's College, Ennis.

Snatches of Newman from the book
"To live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often"

Prayer for Perseverance
*May Christ support us all the day long
 Till shades lengthen
 And the evening comes
 And the busy world is hushed
 And a fever of life is over
 And our work is done.
 Then in His mercy
 May He give us a safe lodging,
 A Holy rest
 And peace at last. Amen.*

Prayer to John Henry Newman
*Dear Saint John Henry Newman,
 You sought after truth and now you understand it perfectly.
 Shine a little of that light of understanding on us your brothers and sisters in Christ.
 Whenever we are becalmed and motionless in despair,
 inspire us with a gentle breeze to our backs.
 Still our compulsion to judge others in the poorest of light.
 Calm all our anger and save us from the rough seas of frustration.
 Lead us safely to port and a share in the perfect peace of God's Kingdom. Amen.*

The front cover of this book features a painting of Saint John Henry Newman by Agnieszka Ryan. The original is on display in the Saint John Henry Newman room, Westbourne, Ennis. Agnieszka's husband is from Sixmilebridge.
