The G.A.A and the Community

The Sixmilebridge Hurlers are in the County Final for the first time since 2002. It's a week for a parish 'buzz'. County finals are special. They are special because they stay in the memory, especially when they are won. They are special because they resurrect a 'pride of place'. They bring a people together behind their team. When hurling stars are interviewed they almost always refer to the importance of the Club, and playing with the lads they grew up with.

There are very few organisations contribute more to a people and a place than the G.A.A. It is all about Community - of all ages, - those who play the games, those who train them, administer, maintain the Club and those who support all of this in so many ways.

There are few clubs in Ireland contribute more than ours. We take the opportunity of saluting and thanking all those who have made it what it is. In a very special way we remember those who contributed down through the years and are no longer with us.

Let's show our appreciation by supporting the teams next Sunday in Cusack Park. Let the County know we are proud of our team and proud of our place.

We Remember with Love our Friend, Colleague and Sacristan Mary Walsh R.I.P. - Kilmurry whose untimely death has tinged our Parish with great sadness. Just days before Mary's passing she was awarded the Bene Merenti Papal Award for outstanding dedication in her role as Sacristan in Kilmurry. Mary will be missed by everyone but especially her family, AnneMarie, Martina, Liam and extended family.

World Mission Sunday - Next Sunday 23rd October 2011

The theme of this year's Mission Sunday is "Together in faith". Pope Benedict reminds us in his letter for Mission Sunday that "missionary activity renews the Church, revitalizes faith and Christian identity, and offers fresh enthusiasm and new incentive.

"Faith is strengthened when it is given to others"

The poster for this year's Mission Sunday which shows Pio Lokuru who is a Catechist in Africa's newest country, South Sudan. Pio has helped to keep faith alive in Kapoeta during the long civil war. He is a living example of the theme, Together in Faith.

The Eucharistic Congress Bell

The Eucharistic Congress Bell will arrive in the Killaloe Diocese on Monday 17th in Kinnity Church at 1.30 p.m. It will be travelling through our Diocese for ten days.

It will be arriving in Sixmilebridge on Tuesday morning 25th October. We will have the details of the visit on newsletter next week. We hope to make this a memorable occasion.
