SOULS AND SAINTS

There are some special comforting words that are often spoken in the days following a bereavement.

'She's in a better place,' - 'She's at peace now,' - 'She's watching over us.' These words are particularly relevant when the deceased person has battled a serious illness or suffered in some way. Even as we mourn our loved ones, our funeral prayers and Masses offer hope that they have passed into the welcoming community of those who now see God face to face.

These words of comfort give voice to our deep sense that there is a life beyond the grave. We often say that there is a life beyond the grave. We often say that a loved one has not gone too far away - that they can still reach out to us and offer us comfort and support.

We say - "they are gone to God and God is very near".

As we celebrate the Feast of All Saints and the month of the Holy Souls we remember all those who have gone to God.

Our lives have been blessed by people who have been close to us - parents, grandparents, relatives, neighbours, friends. All who are known to us. We remember them in a very special way this month. We thank God for their lives.

We pray for them and we ask them to help us on our journey. The eleven year old son of the late Anthony Foley has launched a Facebook Page in memory of his Dad. Tony is asking people to go to Mass and light a candle in remembrance of their loved ones, and also remembering his own Dad, beginning this Sunday and continuing in the eight weeks to Christmas. This Sunday is his Dad's 43rd Birthday. He would like people to post pictures of their lighted candles on special Facebook Page. "Axel Foley Memorial"

At the Clare Community Games All Star Presentations on Fri last Margaret O'Halloran secretary of Sixmilebridge/Kilmurry Community Games was honoured when she was the recipient of the Hall of Fame Award. Margaret received this honour for her hard work & dedication to Community Games both at area & county level. As well as doing all the secretarial work Margaret encourages & trains the children of the area and accompanies them to the events. Congratulations! Margaret on this very deserving award.

Sixmilebridge G.A.A. Arena

The Sixmilebridge GAA Minor, Senior and Camogie clubs will be hosting a launch night for the Sixmilebridge GAA Arena on Saturday night the 5th November at 8pm in the GAA Hall. The Arena was recently granted full planning permission by Clare County Council. It will be located beside the dressing rooms at the Cappa Lodge GAA field. It will be a 60m long by 30m wide steel clad building with concrete walls internally and an astro turf surface. It will facilitate player development all year round for U-6s all the way up to the senior teams as well as serving as a winter training facility. All are welcome to the launch night where we will have some guest speakers, an introduction to the Arena, food and the launch of the new lotto standing order which will directly fund the building of the Arena. Keep an eye on Clubify, Twitter and Facebook for further details in the coming days.
