Our Schools

Catholic Schools Week begins January 30th. It's a week to give thanks and celebrate the dedication of Teachers, Staff, Board of Managements, Trustee Bodies and Parent Organisations.

It is also a week to acknowledge that Jesus is our Teacher. We want to encourage our children to develop a personal relationship with Him. And all of us want to be reminded of that too. Faith is better caught than taught.

Our efforts to develop and foster a Christian Community are rooted in Jesus. He will never betray our trust.

We do this through various initiatives during the year. During the week beginning Jan. 30th we will be emphasizing the idea of Sacred Space in our lives.

Our ongoing preparation for First Communion and Confirmation is a very special way of doing this. The following dates should be noticed as part of this programme.

Migrant Sunday One Human Family

This weekend the Church invites us to remember all migrants - those who have left Ireland to find new life elsewhere and those who have left their own countries to come and live here. We pray for all those who live away from their own homeland.

Toastmasters

Nervous about making that speech or work presentation? Come along to Shannon Toastmasters and learn to develop your speaking skills. Next meeting Wed. 19th Jan at Oakwood Arms at 8pm.

Kilmurry National School is now enrolling for Sept. 2011. Please contact the school at 061- 367623 as soon as possible.

*Wedding Congratulations to
