Grandparents and Grandchildren A Special Bond

A child's life centres on a few crucial close attachments. One of the most significant of these is that of a child to its grandparents. Our focus this weekend is on Grandparents- granddad / granny, papa and nana. In preparing for this little celebration of their lives we talked to people who experienced their influence in the home. One person said: there is something special about children reared with grandparents. There seems to be a strong bond between them - a special and unique love that children reserve for their grandparents.

Many grandparents admit that they can enjoy time with their grandchildren that they were unable to savour when rearing their own children. Very often the daily drudge of work and money, of school and homework, house and home, denied them the time to appreciate their young. And then relentless time given to work to pay the bills and mortgages very often left very little time for the children.

Grandparents now enjoy a second chance in the company of children with all the benefits and few of the hassles they recall from their first time round.

The children, grandparents and society benefit enormously from these relationships.

PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardian of noble domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions. Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and roles of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them.

Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen!

We remember with love all our Grandparents living and dead.
