Person to Person Contact with others and with Christ

Last weekend we were reminded of the importance of caring for others. Words are fine but we will be judged by our actions. A lot of people liked the phrase:

"People don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care."

We are aware that we live in an Information Age. Knowledge, more and more of it, seems to be very important to us. We talk a lot now and emphasise the importance of going to College. And that is all fine as is the use of the Internet and so on. However, there is real concern with the fact we have less and less "person to person" communication. Parents will tell you about young people spending a lot of time on the Smart Phone - in the car or at home. Is that leading to more and more isolation and loneliness.

Is it time for all of us to set aside time for a chat at home, with others in everyday life and a visit to people who live alone. As Christians is it time to reflect on Christ, His Message and what He means to us. We can get to know Him better by reflecting on His Word every weekend. We are making an effort now here in our own community to reflect on something from the Gospel at weekend Masses.

"What is He saying to us today"

This weekend He asks;

'Who do people say I am?' 'Who do you say I am?'

'Who do I say He is?' Could we give some thought to this?

His Word can change something in our lives in the most practical of ways.

Sixmilebridge Historical Society Sixmilebridge - Images Through Time is the name of a new hard cover book which will be launched by Fr. Harry Bohan on Friday November 2nd. It details a 150 years of Sixmilebridge through a series of fabulous photographs. The profits of the book will be donated to Sixmilebridge National School Building Fund. If anybody is willing to help financially towards the cost of its production and directly increasing the profit for our local school they should contact any of the following.
