Senior Citizens Humour

If you are not sure that you qualify as a true senior citizen, the following checklist may be of help.

The gleam in your eye is the sun shining on your bifocals.

You feel like the morning after ... but you haven't been anywhere.

Your children begin to look middle-aged.

You join a health club - and you don't go.

You have all the answers, but no one asks the questions.

You look forward to a dull evening.

You need glasses to find your glasses.

You turn the lights down for economy instead of romance.

You sit in a rocking chair but can't make it go.

Your knees buckle, but your belt won't.

Your back goes out more often than you do.

Your house is too big and your medicine cabinet too small.

You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there.

Your birthday cake collapses under the weight of the candles.

A Blessing

May you have:

Enough success to keep you eager,

Enough failure to keep you humble;

Enough joy to share with others,

Enough trials to keep you strong,

Enough hope to keep you happy,

Enough faith to banish depression,

Enough friends to give you comfort,

Enough determination to make each day better than yesterday.

The role will involve the creation, resourcing, delivery and support of youth ministry programmes and initiatives across the Diocese, including with parishes and schools with a focus on building capacity in the local context.
