Mary and Martha

Mary Knew true Hospitality is always in Style.

Welcoming people into our homes is a gift - a gift worth sharing, whether the place is decorated to perfection or not. Because true hospitality makes a person feel special.

Martha learns Comparison only breeds Anxiety.

When Martha compares her current life to someone else's and realises she's holding the short straw which is the same kind of trap we get caught in sometimes. Comparison is a trickster, though, because it never tells the full story. When we look at someone else's life, we only catch a snapshot. Truth is, no matter how it looks on the outside, God is at work in every story. No two stories are exactly the same. Comparison doesn't change our story - it just steals our joy.

Martha learns to go to the Best Source First.

There's something to be said for knowing who can help. Sometimes we can be tempted to share our problems with everyone else - friends, social media etc., when the wisest thing to do is to approach the ONE who can actually fix things. Martha knew what she was doing.

Martha learns you can tell Jesus Anything.

God, doesn't get offended when we come to Him in the middle of emotional upheaval. He won't mind when we tell Him exactly what we are feeling. Jesus is our perfect Friend, approachable, loving, and eager to listen.

The Path to Peace Begins with One Thing.

After Martha says her piece, Jesus offers her the Path of Peace. When we concentrate on Jesus first, we discover that we are never truly alone or without help. We experience that His grace is sufficient for that we face. We find inner peace and strength to face whatever comes our way.

*Lord, help us learn to cherish and make time to simply sit and be in Your Presence.
 At the same time, Lord, show us how to live a life of integrity in which we are people of our word.
 Only you can bring a balance to our lives.*
