Thank You!

Fr. Harry would like to thank all those who attended the Mass Celebrating his Diamond Jubilee in the Priesthood, and all those who sent good wishes. The numbers are too great to respond individually to each person. He was very moved with the big numbers who attended and indeed felt humbled by it all. He is grateful to Bishop Fintan and Fr. Michael Collins for their generous tributes and to the clergy who concelebrated. In particular he is grateful to the organising committee from within the Parish and did it all so quietly and in such a dignified way.

With heartfelt thanks to everyone.
