Killaloe Diocese Going Forward in Faith, Hope and Love

World Mission Sunday This weekend parishes worldwide celebrate World Mission Sunday. The kindness shown will help overseas missionaries to continue to share the love of God with some of the world's most marginalised and vulnerable people. Thank you for supporting in whatever way you can, and please remember it is more than an appeal for financial help. Missionaries also need spiritual support. On World Mission Sunday missionaries take great strength in knowing that the faithful of the world are keeping them in their thoughts and prayers.

The Synod in Rome The synod that Pope Francis called has just completed the second stage of its reflections. The themes that were discerned included: Leadership & Service; Missionary activity, The Role of the laity; The centrality of the family; Ecumenism; Interreligious dialogue; Evangelization in a digital world with attention to those who do not have access to digital media; Lay Ministries; Clericalism that hinders communion; The role of women in the church including inclusive language and the matter of female deacons; Initial and ongoing training of both priests and laypeople.

The next phase of the synod will look at "Participation Governance and Authority. Pope Francis hopes that this Synod is modelling how we as a church can be in the world by pausing to listen, pray and discern where the Spirit of God is guiding us at this time.

The Irish Whale and Dolphin Group (IWDG) are hosting a special afternoon at the Falls Hotel, Ennistymon on Sunday 22nd from 3-5pm to celebrate the rich waters off the west coast. During the event we will hear about the work of the Fair Seas campaign and their ambition to see Ireland become a world leader in marine protection, and the upcoming Marine Protected Area (MPA) legislation. A series of talks will end in a panel discussion where attendees can ask any questions they have. The event is FREE. No prior booking is required.
