Prayer in Time of Bereavement

Lord, you are close to the broken-hearted.
 Be with me now in my grief and loneliness.
 Give me the courage to face my loss
 and not to grieve in silence.
 Be with me as I struggle
 with many different and painful feelings.
 Ease the hurt in my heart.
 Encircle me in your love.
 Help me to believe that one day
 I will no longer have this deep sorrow.
 May I find comfort in sharing my grief with those who understand the strong bonds of love.
 Stay with me, Lord, Support me.
 Help me to know that your power is at work within me as I deal with my grief. Amen

In November We Remember

Remember those who kept the faith who always turned to pray, who showed the love of Jesus in their lives from day to day. Remember those this special time who live with God above, All Saints, All Souls and all our own who live with God in Love

May the road rise up to meet you. may the wind always be at your back. may the sun shine warm upon your face and the rain fall soft upon your fields. until we meet again, may you be held in the hollow of god's hand.

For those who were unable to attend the Cemetery Services last Sunday, Fr. Damien gave the following Blessing

I pray that you will have the Blessing of being consoled and sure about your own death.

May you know in your soul that there is no need to be afraid.

When your time comes, may you be given every blessing and shelter that you need.

You are not going somewhere strange.

You are going back to the home that you never left.

May you have a wonderful urgency to live your life to the full.

May you live compassionately and creatively and transfigure everything that is negative within you and about you.

When you come to die may it be after a long life.

May you be peaceful and happy and in the presence of those who really care for you.

May your going be sheltered and your welcome assured.

May your soul smile in the embrace of your Anam Cara
