Loyalty is Love

Loving means acting like the Good Samaritan.
To show compassion is to suffer with the wounded and the suffering, to share their pain and agony.
At times we can be silent spectators afraid to involve ourselves and dirty our hands.
Compassion demands that we get out of ourselves as we reach out to others in need.
It means that we get our hands and even our reputations dirty.
The Good Samaritan shows us what compassion and commitment are all about.
This kind of Love teaches us what authentic compassion, commitment and communion with others are all about.
The Samaritan did not think about the race or the religion of the man; he just saw a man who needed help.
Lord, help us to always be a Good Samaritan and not just a passer by.

A Summer Prayer

May you breathe in the beauty of Summer with its power of transformation...
May you seek and find spaces of repose during these Summer months...
May these moments refresh and restore the tired places within you...
May you be open to times of celebration and recreation that are so much a part of Summer...
May your eyes see the wonders of Summer's colours...
May these colours delight you and entice you into contemplation and joy...
May you feel energy of Summer rains penetrating thirsty gardens, golf courses lawns and farmlands...
May your inner self be refreshed, restored, and renewed...
May you enjoy the unexpected and find surprises of beauty and happiness as you travel the roads on Summer holidays...

BLOOD DONATION CLINICS

Help Safeguard our Hospital Blood Supplies this Summer
As we all enjoy the well-earned break of the Summer Holidays, we're asking people not to forget that Irish hospitals still need blood every day - especially during the busy summer season.
If you're a regular donor - or if you've ever thought about giving blood - please consider coming along and helping us protect hospital patients across the country.
