Last Sunday's and Feast of the Epiphany collection was €2,657.

Thank you for your continued support. There will be a second collection at all Masses next weekend in support of the Bishops' Conference and Commissions.

Sanctuary Lamps Donors intentions this week are for the deceased members of the Shortt and Flanagan families.

Evening of Appreciation. We thank the many volunteers who give countless hours each week to help with the Liturgy, Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Basket Collectors, Counters, Envelope Distributors, Sacristans, Safeguarding Reps, Choirs, Organists, Instrumentalists, Cantors and scrubbers who clean our churches. Those who serve on both our Pastoral and Finance Committees, Organisers of Eucharistic Adoration, Bereavement Group, Children's Liturgy, those who serve as parish reps on our school boards of management and those who take care of Parish Property. To our Office staff, to the Sisters of Mercy and the many volunteers who help each day make our Parish active and vibrant we are so very grateful. As a token of appreciation, we would like to invite all involved to a gathering on Monday 26th January beginning with a Mass of Thanksgiving for all involved at 7pm followed by some refreshments in the GAA club. We hope to see as many as possible on the night.
